

ROLLER FOR OVERLAPS

Description

This roller has a total weight of about 15 kg. It has a telescopic handle adjustable in length, which is essential to perfectly seal the membrane overlap, previously heated. Its particular design also allows it to work adherent to vertical walls. Suitable for thick and dual reinforced membrane.

Technical data

Diameter	130 mm
Width	120 mm
Total weight	15 kg

We reserve the rights to change or modify the nominal values without prior notice or advice. The information contained in this data sheet are based on our experience. We cannot take any responsibility for a possible incorrect use of the products. The customer has to choose under their own responsibility a product fit for the intended use.